BENICÀSSIM, THE ORIGINS OF A TOWN

Saturday, 7th November (11 a.m. – 12.30 p.m.)

Meeting point: Tourist Info Casa Abadía. Santo Tomás street, 74.

Distance: 1,2 km.

Recommended for: Adults and children aged 7 and over.

Price: €3 (€1.50 reduced rate).

Description: Through this tour, we will discover the medieval origins of Benicàssim, the birth of its current town center in the 18th century, and the economic, social, and urban transformations that shaped its development during the 19th and 20th centuries. We will learn about how the lives of its inhabitants were organized, the importance of agriculture and transport links, and the arrival of new architectural trends that altered the town's appearance. During the visit, we will enter the Church of Santo Tomás de Villanueva, the construction of which was championed in the 18th century by Francisco Pérez Bayer—a key figure in the shaping of present-day Benicàssim. This tour offers insight into how Benicàssim evolved from a small agricultural settlement into a town that embraced tourism and modernity.

THE VILLAS, A SETTING FOR CINEMA AND CULTURE

Saturday, 14th November (10.30 a.m – 12 p.m)

Meeting point: Voramar Hotel. 1, Pilar Coloma Promenade.

Distance: 2 km.

Recommended for: Adults and children aged 7 and over.

Price: €3 (€1.50 reduced rate).

Description: The villas of Benicàssim are far more than just a collection of unique residences. Their artistic and architectural richness serves as a starting point for discovering a place that, for decades, functioned as a meeting ground for prominent figures from the worlds of culture, art, and society. We will delve into the more cinematic side of Benicàssim—a place shaped by the presence of figures such as Luis García Berlanga—whose connection to the town allows us to explore the links between the landscape of these villas, the tradition of summer vacations, and the world of Spanish cinema. We will also discover how this atmosphere—defined by gatherings, lively discussions, and social interaction—fostered ties to literature and other artistic expressions, transforming the villas into an ideal setting for culture, inspiration, and creativity.

TRAILS OF THE DESERT, HISTORY AND SPIRITUALITY

Saturday, 21st November (10 a.m – 12.30 p.m)

Meeting point: Desert de les Palmes old Monastery viewpoint car park CV-147.

Distance: 3.7 km.

Recommended for: adults and children over 8 used to hike and accompanied by adults.

Price: €3 (€1.50 reduced rate).

Description: We will visit some of the most compelling features of the religious heritage within the Desert de les Palmes, offering a glimpse into the mystical and spiritual side of this stunning mountainous landscape in Benicàssim. These places, steeped in mystery, evoke a sense of quietness and calm—just a stone's throw from civilization. Tucked away amidst the red sandstone, the lush green mountains, and the dense vegetation of the ravines, they stand as witnesses to an era when prayer and seclusion defined the daily lives of those who once inhabited these lands. Along the route, we will uncover what life was like for the friars, hermits, and saints who lived here, and learn to identify the traces left by centuries of history upon this unique cultural landscape.

A journey through history, nature, and spirituality—an invitation to discover the soul of the Desert de les Palmes.

Recommendations: Sports footwear and water.

RETURN TO THE VILLAS (dramatised)

Saturday, 28th November (12 p.m – 13.30 p.m)

Meeting point: Espai Cultural Villa Ana. 35, Pilar Coloma Promenade.

Recommended for all the audience.

Price: €5 (€2.50 reduced rate).

Description: The Villas of Benicàssim invite us to travel back to an era of elegant summer retreats, distinguished families, and lively social gatherings. Through this tour, we will discover the history, architecture, and intriguing details of this unique collection of residences—a setting for encounters, celebrations, and countless stories. But something unexpected is about to happen... An illustrious owner returns to Benicàssim after a two-year absence, and her arrival promises to awaken memories, reveal secrets, and transport us back to the villas' golden age. It is a theatrical experience—rich in history, colorful characters, and delightful surprises—that will allow us to relive the atmosphere of those summers from long ago.
