Meeting point: 2, Pilar Coloma Promenade.
Distance: 1.5 km.
Recommended for: Adults and children aged 10 and over.
Price: €3 (€1.50 reduced rate).
Description: The outbreak of the Spanish Civil War caused Benicàssim's elegant summer villas to undergo a radical change of function. Requisitioned and adapted to the needs of the conflict, they became part of a major medical complex linked to the International Brigades, where the Hotel Voramar and dozens of villas were turned into hospitals, accommodation, dining rooms and recovery spaces, casinos for political gatherings, libraries... Doctors, nurses, soldiers, and prominent journalists and writers of different nationalities made Benicàssim an important medical and humanitarian centre during the Civil War.
The visit will conclude with a screening of original footage from Victoire de la vie, a 1937 documentary filmed partly in Benicàssim by the renowned French photographer Henri Cartier-Bresson.

Meeting point: Espai Cultural Villa Ana. 35, Pilar Coloma Promenade.
Recommended for all audiences.

Description: The villas of Benicàssim invite us to travel back to an era of elegant summer retreats, distinguished families, and lively social gatherings. Through this tour, we will explore the history, architecture, and intriguing details of this unique collection of residences—a setting for countless encounters, celebrations, and stories. This time, however, the magic of Christmas brings an unexpected visitor… A prominent owner returns to Benicàssim after a two-year absence, arriving just in time for the holiday season. Her return promises to awaken memories, unveil secrets, and transport us back to a golden age, when family gatherings, festive preparations, and celebrations brought these villas to life. This theatrical experience—rich in history, colorful characters, a festive Christmas atmosphere, and delightful surprises—allows us to relive the charm of these historic villas and discover how the holiday season was celebrated in days gone by. To conclude this journey into the past, we will enjoy a small Christmas-themed refreshment, offering a toast to the holiday season.

THE WATER PATHS, THE SPRINGS OF THE DESERT

On this interpretive hiking route, we will explore some of its most iconic locations, including the Sant Josep, Roc, and Tallà springs—three sites that reveal the vital role of water in this natural setting, how it has been utilized throughout history, and its connection to the Carmelite religious order. Along the way, we will also discover ancient paths, hermitages, and fascinating features of the area's natural and cultural heritage, all while taking in the scenery and the tranquillity of one of Benicàssim's most emblematic landmarks.
